

MYSL Zero Tolerance Policy

Expectations of Spectators, Players, Coaches:

- The MYSL has a zero tolerance for fan misbehavior at all sporting events. This includes but is not limited to: booing, shouting at officials, or arguing any call.
- Expressing any negative behavior or comments, threats or obscene gestures to players, coaches or officials is also unacceptable.
- Cheering in a positive fashion, for both sides is highly encouraged.
- Ours is a recreational league with fun as a the primary emphasis.
- Many officials and coaches are volunteers and we should all appreciate their efforts, and support them - setting a good example for the children.

Any spectator who does not behave appropriately {as directed above} will be asked to leave, according to the following steps:

1. Officials will identify violators to the coaches, or vice versa.
2. Officials confer with both coaches, one of whom will then approach the spectator and may give a warning, or ask them to leave. If the spectator is not recognized by either coach, the home coach will speak to him/her.
3. If the decision is made for the spectator to leave, play will not resume until he/she has left the facility. If he/she refuses to leave, his/her team will forfeit, and the game will be over.

Please help us foster good sportsmanship, and encourage positive experiences for our youth.

Sportsmanship is our goal!
